SEMINAR FEES

Fee: $80 (after conference subsidy)
Late Fee: Late fee of $5 will apply after Wednesday, February 11.
Subsidies: Payment of fees are subsidised by the NNSW Conference by $20. Your church will usually subsidise you ($40), so you may only have to pay $40.
Accommodation: We would appreciate it if you could stay in the accommodation allocated to you (first applicants will be allocated to Cabins before Dorms!)

WHAT TO BRING

You may need: Sleeping bag, sheets, blankets, pillow, toiletries, insect repellent, torch, pad & pen.
Provided: Great meals and cosy accommodation.

PROGRAM

First Event: Tea, Friday 6:00-8.00pm (only)
Final Event: Final Event – Lunch, Sunday 12:30pm
The program: A neatly balanced program for the weekend ensures adequate breaks and creative workshops as well as instruction and discussion sessions. Leaders will have the opportunity to network and swap ideas.
Question time: Most of our leaders have many years experience in Pathfinding. Come with your important questions for answers to help in your club.
Pathfinder Supplies: There will be opportunity for you to purchase Pathfinder supplies during the weekend. DMH camping equipment will also be on display.
Special feature: We have some base jumpers coming to share some amazing stories on Saturday night.

Registered Training Organisation

Our RTO continues to grow. Qualifications issued from completed modules will be part of VETAB Certificate 4 in Outdoor Recreation. The RTO assessors will be present to assess you in these Nationally recognised outdoors and group leadership modules.

A number of practical components can be completed at Outdoor Training weekends. Please tell your District Director now what modules you need to complete.
